NEW WITNESSES TAKE STAND FOR MRS. BEUTINGER

Wife of Naval Officer Tells of Hearing Struggle in Which Defendant Was Choked.

Two new witnesses, who did not appear at the first trial, testified today in behalf of Mrs. Margaret C.
Beutinger, on trial in Newark for the second time on a charge of having murdered her husband. They were voluntary witnesses.

One was the wife of a naval officer who related an experience in Japan and the other was the Mother Superior of St. Clair School at Mount Hope, Westchester County, New York, who brought about the remarriage of the Beutingers after their divorce. She testified that when Mrs.

Beutinger consented to remarry she declared she would make the sacrifice for the sake of her children, but that it would be a hard one to make.
Mrs. Anna M. Swazey, the naval officer's wife, testified that in 1914 she and her husband were at the Bellevue Hotel, Nagasaki, Japan. The Beutingers occupied an adjoining room.
One night, Mrs. Swazey said, she was awakened by a noise in the room of the Beutingers and heard Mrs. Beutinger cry out "Stop choking me or I will call the police!" The answer was a curse, and Mrs. Swazey left her bed and called through the door that she would call the police. The noise of the struggle ended then.

John H. De Bouf of Washington, D.
C., and Manila, who testified at the first trial that Beutinger tried to get him to make a false affidavit to the effect that he had seen Mrs. Beutinger and a man in a compromising situation in a cabin on ship board while on the way from San Francisco to Manila, which he refused to do, repeated his testimony.
Other witnesses were Dr. E. G.
Markens, Jail Physician; Helen Ausperle, maid at the Beutinger home; Julia Gasco, a nurse; Dr. Edward L.
Ives, called to the Beutinger house after the shooting; and John Cummings, chauffeur, for Beutinger.
Dr. Curtis, of the Newark Eye and Ear Infirmary, and Policeman Van Dyk, of Caldwell, are still to be heard. The summing up will begin to-day. The jury probably will be charged to-morrow morning.

A GOOD LESSON.
From the Pittsburgh Post.
"We might learn one lesson from all the crowned heads."
"What is that?"
"To get no good a face as they do on their deaths."

Our newest shop at Columbus Circle is the ninth link in the chain of good clothing value stores which have given New York men the kind of clothing they want to wear at a price they like to pay.

Monroe quality clothes at $15 are the answer to any man's clothing problem. Built of handsome, long-wearing fabrics, and designed by metropolitan master tailors, Monroe Clothes are worthy of the unqualified "money back if you want it" guarantee we have placed upon them.

Monroe quality is better than you can possibly get elsewhere at $15, because we save expenses that would otherwise have to be added to your cost.

By making Monroe Clothes ourselves we save the middleman's profit.

By selling Monroe Clothes in upstairs shops we escape exorbitant rents.

By selling Monroe Clothes for one price ($15) throughout the year, we omit the mark-ups that most clothing stores (as is the custom) put on to offset later "reductions."

Come up to a Monroe Shop for that holiday suit or overcoat. For $15 you'll get clothes satisfaction.
And you determine just what that satisfaction is.

Come up and look at Monroe Quality.
